

ILANA SINGER

*Vice-President and Corporate Secretary,
Canadian Investor Protection Fund (CIPF)*

Ilana Singer is a bilingual member of the senior management team at CIPF, and leads the team responsible for CIPF's communications, coverage and corporate secretarial functions. Ilana is also the Chair of the Ontario Securities Commission's independent Investor Advisory Panel, and is a member of the Northwind Retail Investor Forum Steering Committee. She advises the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank bilingually on securities matters, including crisis management and the establishment of customer protection funds. She is a recent graduate of the Securities Industry Institute (SII) offered by Wharton Executive Education, in partnership with SIFMA.

FRANK BARILLARO

*Speaker
Managing Director,
The Everton Carlisle Group*

Frank Barillaro provides insights and expertise to the financial services industry with respect to capital markets, technology, market surveillance and the regulatory landscape. Frank has certifications in Artificial Intelligence in Finance and as a Blockchain Expert™. In his previous roles at the Montréal Exchange and the TMX Group, Frank conceived and implemented trade surveillance solutions and headed the Market Analysis and Project Management departments of the Regulatory Division. He served as a Deputy, and then Chair, of the Surveillance Practices committee of the Intermarket Surveillance Group, and has served as a panelist and an expert speaker at numerous international conferences. Frank is currently the Global Head of Trade Surveillance for National Bank Financial.