Investor Education Month

October is Investor Education Month! All month long, follow us on social media as we share resources for investors to learn more about CIPF coverage.

Register for CCLS Breakfast Seminar

Registration is now open for CCLS Education Sub-Committee Breakfast Seminar.

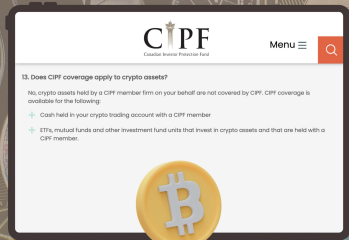

Panelists from CIPF and CDIC will provide an overview of their respective organizations and how coverage works, including the types of property and accounts that are covered, and the coverage limits. They will also explain how their coverage applies to emerging products and services, such as securities lending programs, crypto assets and bank-like products that are being offered by fintechs.

Deadline to register: October 10, 2025. (Registration may be closed earlier due to limited seating capacity).
